For achievement hunters:

You shouldn't buy this game. Because all six achievements are currently broken (at the time I write this review).. its is♥♥♥♥♥. A good game..if you live in the 80's. The F-106 Delta Dart is a fairly good aircraft, though it isn't quite my aircraft. Some pilots may excell with this aircraft and really like it, but for me, it just isn't my favorite. The quality of it is quite good and it flies the way it should. Only downside is there's no autopilot (that I could find, at least).. Don't reference Nex Machina. Don't reference Nex Machina. Don't reference Nex Machina. People are tired of hearing you yap about that.

Mutant Storm: Reloaded feels like a prequel to my self-titled all-time best arcade twinstick schmup Nex Machina. What we have here is a bullet-hell game with a series of static single-screen levels. You start with three credits, and try to get as far as you can. The only powerups are a few different weapons and a score booster. The different weapons only last a few moments. The local co-op is cool, too.

At first bootup, this feels quite dated, but the fun is absolutely still there. What's cool about this one compared to Nex Machina is that 1) you can run it on a toaster, and 2) it's a fraction of the price. Sadly there are no leaderboards, which can go along way for an arcade shooter like this.

Pros:

- +Regardless of how old this is, the fun is absolutely still there
- +Simple to learn, difficult to master; very satisfying, too
- +Any twin-stick fan should have this in their library
- +Can run on a toaster

Cons:

- No leaderboards
- More modern versions of this have a bit more bells-and-whistles

For five bucks, any twin-stick fan will have a ton of fun.. Strongly recommend and a great time to buy especially now too since the steam sale makes it 0.47p. I now have cute achievements!

Easy to complete and doesn't take up too much time :)

. A great dlc for Hell & Damnation with a top-down view. The waves of enemies last a ridiculously long time so it can be pretty hard. If you get any PK game though, get Black Edition because H&D is full of bugs and can even lock you into an unfinishable level making you have to restart the entire game.. It's an interesting concept, but not much of a game. A single playthrough should not take more than an hour, and I can't see much reason to replay it because it's a bit tedious and empty, with no real sense of control over outcomes, no outside system to affect, no personal life to manage, and no plot. My point isn't that games need to have these things, but it helps to have something of substance, doesn't it? This is a bit like solitaire without the replay value.

You alternate between choosing which stories to run, and viewing little cutscenes. This happens about 12 times.

In the cutscenes, the employees gossip lightly about their realistically depressing personal lives in a way that has no clear connection to anything you've done. These cutscenes are ignorable and don't really carry a lot of plot or character.

Editing has a few wrinkles which don't really do anything. Mostly, it is just choosing stories. Occasionally you might strike out a paragraph to avoid making the government or whoever angry. This has no obvious cost, there is no particular information to consider; it's just an arbitrary choice. If the person you give a story to refuses to write it, then you just choose another. Makes you want to hire an understudy who you can just hand the stories to, and they will shop the stories around until each one has a writer. Then there are the letters you receive, but can't read unless you drag them to exactly the right part of the screen.

After each cycle, you get a little feedback about how the papers sold and how they shifted public opinion, for all the difference it seems to make.

After the last cycle, you get different ending texts which might reflect your choices. Or maybe not, it's not very clear. I think I'll skip replaying this for achievements which just meant that I sat in the chair a few more hours like this one.. Angry birds in space with Raccoon characters

Basically, you need to aim and release the mouse by considering pulling √ pushing power in gravity. Wish I could play but I have a vac for mw2 on my account thats 4years old and has nothing to do with csgo . :(

Edit: Still vaced, still can't play xD

I have only played an hour of this game but I love it! It is a great concept! This is truly a mixture of FTL and Xcom, as people have already posted. There is A LOT of potential for this game. I can't wait to see what it will develop into. If your a fan of "said" mentioned games, then spend the 9 bucks and give it a go.. "Poh!" Probably one of my favorite lines. This VN leaves you grinning from beginning to end. I give it a near ten out of ten, it is so well-written. There is no skipping; no boring parts. You're left analyzing every line and every picture as it usually leaves clues of what is to come. Haven't completed all the arcs, just know it is going to be a pretty long time before I'm finished.

Well done!. I liked the concept, but didn't enjoy the game. Controls and graphics are fine. But I found the darkness too limiting. I wish you had an option to keep dim lights on or something, and maybe require flashlight to find things. Instead I got a headache. And I also felt the levels too limiting, and no clear direction on how to progress. [2V5 stars]. Really great game, I would reccomend to anyone, espicially at a price so low

Edit:Still holds up. Plays the same way as F-22 Lightning 3 so everything I said in that review also applies here. The only problem is that there is no in-game music to set the tone.. Pretty good game
